

CHRIST COVENANT CHURCH

Christ Covenant Church, Langley, BC, Canada, is seeking to call an Assistant Pastor, and we invite expressions of interest from pastors who are open to a call or expect to be reasonably soon.

We are looking for men who are committed to excellence in preaching, personal discipleship, and pastoral counselling, who combine theological discernment with leadership gifts and a vision to build Christ's church in maturity and size by proclaiming the whole counsel of God.

Other specific requirements include:

- Character and godliness. An established reputation for personal holiness; a history of faithful, peaceable, and sacrificial Christian service; clearly demonstrable faithfulness as a husband and father; a man of prayer; a hospitable family man.
- Training and experience. M.Div. or equivalent. Age 25-35 years old. Ideally, 5 years in formal ministry, including regular preaching, teaching, discipleship, pastoral counselling, and leading worship.
- Theological convictions. Theological commitments must be in accord with our confessional statements (TFU) and with the distinctive liturgical and theological commitments of the CREC.
- Work ethic and teamwork. Proven capacity for sustained hard work; high level of personal organization and efficiency; the ability to contribute with insight and clarity in group discussion; team player able to function well alongside other pastors, elders, deacons, and church members.
- Preaching and teaching. Demonstrable excellence in preaching and teaching the word of God in public contexts; unwavering commitment to the centrality of such teaching in promoting Christian maturity.
- Pastoral counseling. Experience in navigating complex pastoral situations with Biblical insight, wisdom, and sensitivity; easily able to get on with many different kinds of people.
- Leadership. Experience of Christian leadership guided by Biblical principle, with proven capacity to lead towards unity without compromise.
- Philosophy of ministry. Wholehearted commitment to promoting Christian maturation through regular corporate worship, faithful proclamation of God's word, sacrificial service, and the cultivation of a Christian culture in church and home; careful avoidance of unnecessary disputes with other believers; desire to draw unbelievers to Christ by manifesting his love and righteousness; no desire to cultivate a personal social media following.

Interested applicants are invited to send an introductory letter and resume to ccc-session@googlegroups.com.